

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Chief Justice Adelor J. Petit wants information bureau for prospective brides. Claims card index of marital troubles would prevent deception.

New registration instructions to be issued in aldermanic elections. Women must give age. Smoking in polls to be left to precinct boards.

Harry Watts, 28, manager Renault-Freres Company, 2536 S. Michigan av., gone. Cash box empty. Employers auditing books.

Receivers selected for Central Union Telephone Co.

Police searching for Grant Dockslader, who eloped Dec. 5, 1895, with mother's maid. $100,000 fortune waiting for him in Dell Rapids, S. D.

Walter Krueger, vice president Chicago Teamsters' Union, booked in connection with murder of Abraham Lewis, 2188 W. Division st.

William Benn, Maywood, robbed of $18. Borrowed 20 cents carfare from police. Held up again. Lost carfare.

Edward Stratton, 716 W. Van Buren st., lassoed by highwayman. Choked into insensibility. Robbed $6.

H. Jacobson, jeweler, 1611 W. Taylor st., swindled out of $400. Man took jewelry out of room to show fiancée. Failed to come back.

Dr. H. D. Port, 2529 Indiana av., beaten by negroes. $40 and watch gone.

George Duggan's saloon, 1459 Devon av., robbed. $26.

Ethel Speck, 32, who declared she shot Earl McKenzie because he wronged her, fined $1 and 90 days in county jail. McKenzie's wound slight.

Appellate Court upheld validity of appointment of John E. Northup as special prosecutor of vote fraud cases. Appointment was attacked by Hoyne.

Katie Flunk, maid for Miss Anna T. Johnson, 1006 Dakin st., left hot iron on ironing board and went to movies. House caught fire. $1,500 damage.

Seven new branches to be opened by Chicago Public Library.

Wagon struck by Halsted st. car. Robert Ilfenfeld, 35, teamster, 913 Newton av.; killed and George Block and Wm. Meyer injured.

Man registered as W. E. Jackson, Buffalo, N. Y., died at Great Northern Hotel. Coroner to hold inquest.

Movie managers to bar candidates on screens who refuse to aid fight against censorship.

Body of Mrs. Allen J. Cole, Hebron, Ill., found in cistern.

Michael Leftis jumped through barber shop window. Frank Miller dove through taxicab window. Fined $10 each and sent to Bridewell.

Mrs. Louise M. Greeve granted divorce from Henry Greeve, purchasing agent of The Fair. Allowed $150 a month alimony.

Every third student is working way through college in Chicago. Students earned $157,350 past year.

Karl L. Prentice, accused of taking $289 from B. B. Goldenberg, 314 S. State st., arrested in Minneapolis.

Harry W. Prince fined $50 for firing gun in street car.

Miss Velvet Lee, 1240 S. Wabash av., arrested J. H. Cline, 1819 Indiana av. Claims he used ad for clerk to lure her into store and mistreat her.

Louis Gentile hooted actors at National Theater, 808 S. State st. Got beating. Pasqual Manella, 217 W. 24th st., arrested.

John F. Whelan, 742 Fullerton av., indicted on charge of taking $36,000 from United States Casualty Co.

Mrs. Mabel Aray Ludlam claims guardian, James A. Channon, is crooked. Alleges $150,000 worth of bonds have not been accounted for.

James and Dominick Screato, alleged slayers of Andre Coppetell, 639 S. State st., sought by police.

Frank Pezzuto, saloonkeeper, 1735 W. Harrison st., arrested. Alleged to have abducted niece of Patrolman T. F. Murtha, 3425 W. 34th st.

Felix Sweet, 1122 S. Desplaines st., arraigned for larceny, paroled by